APPLICATION 2011 – ARIZONA TEACHER OF THE YEAR ARIZONA EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

General Information

(Call 480-421-9376 with questions)

Arizona Educational Foundation's (AEF) Teacher of the Year program is the only statewide program that spotlights the contributions of Arizona's teachers. The Arizona Teacher of the Year program, presented by Wells Fargo, annually recognizes 10 exceptionally skilled and dedicated public schools teachers grades PreK-12. Nominees are teachers in their 5th year or greater who have gained the respect and admiration of students, parents, and colleagues, and who inspire students of all backgrounds and abilities to learn. They play an active and useful role in their communities and in their schools, distinguishing themselves as leaders. Recognized teachers must be poised, articulate, and possess the energy to withstand a taxing schedule. Candidates must plan to continue in an active teaching status through 2011.

Applicants submit a written application that is reviewed by a panel of judges consisting of educators, students, and business and community leaders. Ten semi-finalists are selected from the written applications; all applicants will be notified by September 24, 2010 if selected as a semi-finalist. The 10 semi-finalists will be interviewed in early October 2010, as part of the final selection process. The 10 semi-finalists will prepare and bring to their interview a 15-minute DVD; judges review the DVDs, interview candidates and hear them deliver an impromptu speech. Five of the semi-finalists are selected as Ambassadors for Excellence; one of the five Ambassadors will be named AEF's Teacher of the Year at the awards luncheon on November 18, 2010, at the Camelback Inn, Scottsdale. The Teacher of the Year and four Ambassadors serve for one year as advocates for the teaching profession by making public appearances statewide, speaking to professional, business, education, civic, parent and student groups. The remaining five semi-finalists who are not selected as Teacher of the Year or Ambassador attend the awards luncheon where they are honored.
